

Wisconsin Department of Health and Family Services DIVISION OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Bureau of Communicable Diseases & Preparedness
SPRING SEMINARS 2006

This seminar is provided by the Division of Public Health in accordance with s. 250.04(6) Wis. Stats. for attendance by staff in local public health departments in accordance with s. 251.06(3)(i) Wis. Stats.

WHAT: A one-day regional seminar on communicable disease issues in Wisconsin

WHO: The seminar is intended primarily for staff in local public health departments who are working in communicable disease surveillance, control, and prevention. Infection control professionals are also encouraged to attend.

Agenda

(may vary for each regional office)

7:45-8:15 AM	Registration	11:45-1:00 PM	Lunch
8:15-8:30 AM	Welcome & Overview of Seminar Regional Director AND Akan Ukoennin, Bureau Director	1:00-1:45 PM	MRSA and Clostridium difficile: Old Enemies with New Tricks Gwen Borlaug, Infection Control Epidemiologist, Communicable Disease Epi Section
8:30-9:15 AM	Immunization Update Dan Hopfensperger, Director, Immunization Program AND John Flynn, CDC Public Health Advisor	1:45-2:15 PM	WEDSS Lorna Will, Surveillance Epidemiologist, Communicable Disease Epi Section OR Aasa Schmit, Director, Electronic Disease Surveillance, Communicable Disease Epi Section
9:15-10:00 AM	Replacing the TB Skin Test with a Blood Test Ann Sabatka, Brown County Health Dept OR Dianne Robertson, Dunn County Health Dept	2:15-3:00 PM	Human Papilloma Virus Jeff Davis, Chief Medical Officer & State Epidemiologist
10:00-10:15 AM	Break	3:00-3:45 PM	Topics of Local Interest "Local Presenters"
10:15-11:00 AM	Avian Influenza Tom Haupt, Epidemiologist, Communicable Disease Epi Section OR Carolyn Strubel, Public Health Preparedness Consortia Coordinator
11:00-11:45 AM	Pandemic Influenza: The Lab Response Carol Kirk, Lab Network Coordinator, WI State Lab of Hygiene OR Pete Shult, Director Communicable Disease Division and Emergency Lab Response, WI State Lab of Hygiene

Pre-Registration is Required!

(two weeks prior to each seminar)

No Registration Fee

Refreshments at breaks will be provided
Meals & lodging are the responsibility of each participant

How to Register:

Register by using the TRAIN program

Access on the internet at wi.train.org

Select option 1 if you are an enrolled HAN user - Log In - then select "WI-TRAIN" tab at top of page and continue to follow bullet points below

- OR -

Select option 2 to enter TRAIN - Log In

If you are not already enrolled as a Train user, you must do so now for seminar registration

- Go to Upcoming Events (large blue box on right)
- Click on 2006 Communicable Disease Spring Seminar
- Click on "Registration" tab
- Click on the "Register" tab for Seminar of your choice
- Registration will be confirmed and an email sent to you
- If you are unable to register through TRAIN, please contact your regional office

WHERE: Seminars will be held in each of the five Division of Public Health (DPH) regions at these facilities.

Southeastern Region

Oconomowoc

Olympia Resort & Conference Center
1350 Royale Mile Road
Contact: Patti Shaw 414-227-4082

Date: April 28, 2006

Northern Region

Minocqua

Lunch Registration

Waters of Minocqua
8116 Hwy 51 South
Contact: Joan Phelan 715-365-2704

Date: May 10, 2006

Western Region

Eau Claire

Best Western Trail Lodge Hotel
3340 Mondovi Road
Contact: Patti Anderson 715-836-5363

Date: May 11, 2006

Northeastern Region

De Pere

Lunch Registration

SC Grand
1250 Mid-Valley Drive
Contact: Julie Maccoux 920-448-5229

Date: May 18, 2006

Southern Region

Madison

Crowne Plaza
4402 East Washington Ave
Contact: Yolanda Shelton-Morris 608-243-2350

Date: May 19, 2006